Course information

In the Yi Sun-Sin Square, one of the most famous landmarks of Yeosu, are the symbolic sculpture, lighting facilities, waterfront facilities and a pedestrian overpass observatory that visualizes a dragon setting off to the sea. In every corner of the square are historic relics related with the times during the Japanese Invasion of Korea in 1592 such as the historic whereabouts of Admiral Yi Sun-Sin, his war diary and naval battles along with the recordings about 11 people who assisted Admiral Yi Sun-Sin.

The scenery of Dolsandaegyo Bridge and Janggundo Island from Dolsan Park at night is one of the representative night views of Yeosu. Dolsandaegyo Bridge changes into more than 50 colors at night, and added by the beautiful lights from Janggundo Island, the waterfront of Yeosu Harbor greets visitors into its exotic atmosphere.

You can reach Odongdo Island at the end of the road along the breakwater, which has been designated as one of the "100 Most Beautiful Roads of Korea". It has a lighthouse where you can see the waterfront of Odongdo Island in a glance as well as the musical fountain, and bare foot trail. The musical fountain rhythmically flickers and spouts water to amplify the romantic mood of the night.

Yeosu Industrial Complex, built in 1967, is the largest heavy and chemical industry complex in Korea. Tens of thousand lights from massive machineries create a colorful and beautiful night view.
