June 16 - Sep 12 Soho Yacht Marina, Woongcheon Chinsu Park Beach, and Yeosu World Fair Windsurfing, dinghy yachts, kayaking, paddleboarding, snorkeling, scuba diving, and many more enjoyable activities

On the 10th, Yeosu-si (Mayor Kwon Oh-bong) advised that beach leisure sports experiences will be operated for 3 months from the coming 16th to the 12th of Sep. for free.

These programs will run from Wednesdays to Sundays from 10am to 5pm.

The locations are Soho Yacht Marina, Woongcheon Chinsu Park Beach, and Yeosu World Fair.

Windsurfing, dinghy yachts, kayaking, and beach cruisers will be available at the Soho Yacht Marina, and windsurfing, dinghy yachts, paddleboarding, snorkeling, and scuba diving can be enjoyed at the Woongcheon Chinsu Park Beach.

Kayaking, paddleboarding, and beach safety will be available at the Yeosu World Fair, located at the Yeosu Youth Beach Education Center.

Any citizen or tourist can participate through on-site registration. Tourists must show proof of COVID-19 vaccination or a PCR Voice Confirmation (text message) generated within the last 7 days.

For details on how to participate or what to prepare, refer to the Yeosu-si website.

For easier registration for everyone, Yeosu-si will soon be providing a pre-registration service on their website.

“We hope that many citizens and tourists will participate in this program to bask in the true nature of Yeosu, a city of beach tourism and leisure,” the city official said.

In addition, Yeosu-si plans to provide a special program for kayaking and dragon-boating at the Woongcheon Chinsu Park for students to enjoy during their summer break.
