The "56th Yeosu Geobuksun Festival" opened spectacularly on 30 September at the Jongpo Marine Park area.

With the theme of "Toward the future of hope, shouting again!", this festival will be held for three days until 2 October.

On the first day, the 30th, the best street play event in Korea and the highlight of the festival, the Navy Headquarters of Three Provinces Street Play was splendidly performed.

Colorful reproductions such as Geobukseon, Panokseon, Admiral Yi Sun-sin, which reproduced the time of Japanese invasions of Korea and relics of Japanese invasions of Korea continued from the Seogyo-dong rotary to Jongpo Marine Park, providing a unique sight.

At the opening ceremony, a drone light show and a fireworks parade were held following the ceremony and theme performance.

The drone light show that embroidered the night sky in autumn was greatly expanded from 100 to 600, drawing admiration for its fantastic production.

A parade of fireworks launched from the sea near Geobukseon Bridge lit up Yeosu's night sea and created a romantic atmosphere.

On the other hand, on the second day, Saturday 1st October, the Boy Admiral Yi Sun-sin Contest, demonstration of the Baennorae Song of Geomundo Island, mobile game Japanese invasions of Korea, and Culture Day performance will be held around the main stage.

On the last day of the festival, various programs such as Sodongpae Play of Hyeoncheon Village, performances by local artists, and Jeollajwa-do Navy Song Contest will be held, followed by the Yeosu Geobukseon Song Festival, which will be held from 6:30 pm.

Various experience events are also held throughout the festival: pilgrimage to historical sites of Japanese invasions of Korea, family love experience centre, puppet show, family motto making. sianal banauet makina. Yi Sun-sin's savinas and writinas. Tarubi rubbina.
